Guest:

Malcolm Maxwell

President, CEO – Grand River Hospital
“A Journey of Change”

Malcolm Maxwell is a well-respected, seasoned veteran of Canadian healthcare management. With over two decades of experience in health planning and administration across the country, Malcolm is now leading Grand River Hospital on a journey of change to continue improving patient care services in Waterloo Region.

Malcolm came to Grand River Hospital from Northern Health in British Columbia where, as CEO, he was responsible for the management and delivery of extensive health programs and services, including acute care, mental health, public health and home and community care.

Malcolm holds masters degrees in Health Services Administration as well as Resource and Environment Studies from Dalhousie University in Nova Scotia. He currently serves on the Board of the Canadian Health Services Research Foundation.

Malcolm resides in Kitchener with his wife Anne and son James.
