

Come & Hear

Guest Speaker:

Mayor-Elect Brenda Halloran

Brenda Halloran is the newly elected Mayor of Waterloo.

She has been the keynote speaker for the 2006 International Women's Day Conference at Wilfrid Laurier University and was also the key mediator and spokesperson in a major environmental dispute with the City of Kitchener on behalf of the Ralgreen Homeowners Association.

She is on the Board of Directors for Leadership Waterloo Region and the Zonta Club. She contributes her professional mediation skills on a voluntary basis with Community Justice Initiative of Waterloo Region.

Mayor-elect Halloran is a graduate of WCI and received her Registered Nursing Diploma from Conestoga College. After nursing in Florida in Toronto, she progressed through the business world holding several challenging positions in the Toronto Offices of an air freight forwarding company and an Internal Japanese trading company, including four years as the Manager the Customs and Traffic Department, before returning to Waterloo.

She is the proud mother of her energetic teenage daughter, Liz, and is excited about taking on the additional challenge of leadership as the Mayor of Waterloo.
