

Come & Hear

Laurie Scott, MPP

Conservative MPP for the EDA of Haliburton-Victoria-Brock
Ontario PC Party Environment Critic

Laurie Scott was elected as the MPP for Haliburton-Victoria-Brock on Oct 2, 2003. She is the official opposition critic for the Ministry of the Environment and prior to that was critic for Training, Colleges and Universities.

After receiving her nursing diploma at Loyalist College in Belleville, Laurie went on to nurse at Toronto General Hospital and various international contracts. She returned to her community and worked as a nurse in the ICU at Ross Memorial Hospital. She is still an active registered nurse.

Laurie's professional career has included working in a family grocery business while growing up, real estate and being Executive Assistant to Senator Consiglio Di Nino in Ottawa. (Senator Consiglio Di Nino was our guest speaker in September)

Laurie is a long-time director of the Kinmount Fair Board, has been active with various community fundraisers and has served as a member of the Doctor Recruitment Committee for the Village of Kinmount. She has also been a member of the Economic Development Committee for the City of Kawartha Lakes.
