

Come & Hear

Guest Speaker:

Gerry Nicholls,

Vice-President of the National Citizens Coalition

*"The Trudeau Empire has fallen and can't get Up:
How Conservatives can succeed in 2007 and beyond"*

As Vice-President of the National Citizens Coalition, Gerry Nicholls helps to plan the NCC's national and regional communications strategies. He also manages the group's public activities including media relations, public speaking and news releases. In addition, Gerry is the editor of the NCC's newsletter and writes op-ed articles which have appeared in newspapers across Canada including the National Post, the Herald and the Montreal Gazette. He has also appeared as a commentator on countless radio and TV news programs.

Gerry was born and raised in Windsor, Ontario and holds University degrees in history and journalism.

Synopsis: The old Canadian Consensus forged by Pierre Trudeau emphasizing big government is crumbling. In its place a new political consensus is emerging, a consensus conservatives can tap into for political success.
